

GAME

Finishing on a game, each team has an attacking area that the opposition can't enter until the ball is touched in their by a player in the team in possession.

Meaning the opposition either need to be above the area which will allow for through the line passes and runs onto the ball, or they need to sit off and allow someone to pick up the ball in the false 9 position.

From their coach technique of making things happen, being positive to go forward and creative to create chances on goal
