In this 2v2 multi task game, the defenders will have to force forwards out. They will try to delay them with high pressure but no tackle. When the first attack is done, the coach sends another ball inside where defenders will have to make a safe clear tackle, or interception and take the ball out.