

4V4, 4V2, 2V2

The team with the ball will have to perform set number of passes before they dare to attack the goal. The goal keeper will have to run back from the outline of the zone to his goal. This will help the team with the ball to try reach faster the line which allows them to finish. The coach should determine a line where they are only allowed to finish. Then, the opponents will have to run fast after receiving the pass from the coach and finish. Now, the next rondo should be started by the other team.